DESERT STEEL

Our Philosophy

Nature is filled with treasured icons that hold a special place in the heart. Falling in love with these icons is easy, growing them is not.

Our passion: To realistically represent some of nature's most beloved icons with unparalleled creative detail, lasting durability and a FUN, HIDDEN SURPRISE to enjoy no matter where you live!

Our history: From creating backyard getaways to decorating public and commercial spaces, since 2002 our products have been used around the world as landscape accents, many in places the live icon will never grow naturally.
